

Agent C

Challenging fake news, conspiracy theories and online hate

- * Concerned about the rise of online fake news and conspiracy theories?
- * Worried about the spread of racism and online hate?

We are inviting young people to participate in 3 new and exciting interactive workshops that will explore the emergence of online fake news and conspiracy theories with a focus on hateful and divisive narratives.

This program will give you:

- ▶ Knowledge around fake news and conspiracy theories, in particular how to spot them and what you can do about it
- ▶ Communication skills - learn to address complex and controversial topics in this area with the people around you
- ▶ Networks and relationships - build connections with other likeminded young people who are passionate about this area.
- ▶ You'll also receive a Westfield's voucher to the value of $150 after completing the 3 workshops and evaluation surveys.

▶ An understanding of social identity, power and privilege and how they impact on our relationship with fake news and conspiracy theories.

▶ Leadership skills - this will be an exciting opportunity to take part in workshops tackling some of the most current and important issues.

Eligibility:

- Live in NSW.
- Be aged 14-21.
- Interested in challenging the rise of online fake news and conspiracy theories.
- Be available to attend 3 x 1.5 hour workshops online (September)
- Agree to take part in evaluation after the workshops

Training Details:

- Workshop 1 - Saturday 4th September 10 - 11:30 am
- Workshop 2 - Wednesday 8th September 3:30 - 5 pm
- Workshop 3 - Saturday 11th September 10 - 11:30 am

If you'd like to participate but can't make all those dates get in touch anyway and we'll see what we can do!
